

Come to a talk by a North Korean refugee

Picture: the Independent

Jihyun Park escaped from North Korea having experienced life in a prison camp where she was subjected to terrible privations. She endured a forced marriage in China. She has first hand and harrowing experience of life in this hermit kingdom. She now lives in the UK and works for the European Alliance for Human Rights in North Korea – www.eahrnk.org. She will be talking about her experiences in China and North Korea.

Thursday 16 March 2017
Five Rivers Leisure Centre, Hulse
Road, Salisbury SP1 3NR

(Activity Room)

FREE

Talk organised by the Salisbury group of Amnesty International

www.salisburyai.com

